ACADEMIC POLICY

Academic Standard:

Students must pass all classes and maintain a 2.0 semester GPA in order to participate in athletics.

Procedure:

The initial grade check for eligibility is the previous semester grades.

If a student fails to meet the academic requirements listed above, the athlete becomes ineligible for the first three weeks of the season. This extends through the first week of contests. The student is also considered an athlete on probationary status. Athletes on probation will do a weekly grade check throughout the season, and must meet the required academic standard prior to resuming play. Probationary grade checks will be conducted on each Monday, and will determine eligibility for the remainder of that week.

In-season grade checks will be conducted for all athletes three times during the season, at approximately the third, fifth and eighth weeks. For winter sports, the semester grade will be the third check. Each student will be responsible for having their own grade check form completed. An incomplete grade check form will result in the athlete being ineligible for competition until the form is complete. Any athlete failing to meet the academic requirements listed above during the in-season grade check becomes ineligible to compete until the standard is met, is placed on probationary status, and is subject to the weekly grade check process.

If a teacher finds that a student is failing at a time outside of the in-season grade check period, the teacher should notify the head coach of that sport. The student will become ineligible the following Monday and placed on probationary status.

Athletes who have a cumulative grade point average below 2.0 but meet the previous semester grade requirement will be considered on immediate probationary status and subject to weekly grade checks while participating. They will remain on probation during each season until the cumulative GPA is above 2.0.

Teachers are encouraged to communicate with coaches in advance of a student having an academic deficiency. Team rosters will be distributed to the teaching staff after the first week of practices so they can help monitor the student athlete's academic progress. It is important that teachers provide sufficient feedback to athletes regarding their academic status and help encourage athletes to maintain good academic standing.

Definitions:

Probation: A period when an athlete has an academic deficiency and is required to do weekly grade checks to re-establish and/or maintain eligibility. The athlete may or may not be eligible to compete in contests while on probation.

Ineligibility: A period when an athlete has an academic deficiency and cannot compete in athletic contests.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

All athletes must attend a full day of classes in order to participate in athletic activities that day. Reasonable excuses, such as doctor/dentist appointments, field trips, etc., will be cleared by the coach and/or athletic director.

Coaches will review daily bulletins to establish eligibility. If a coach finds that a student was not in a full day of classes the previous day, the athlete becomes ineligible for participation on that day.
